

PHARMACEUTICALS LIMITED

QUALITY POLICY

"It is our endeavour to meet the medical needs and requirements of our customers by offering safe and quality pharmaceutical products and solutions at all times."

Our Quality Policy Comprises:

We, at Agio Pharmaceuticals Limited are committed to manufacturing safe, effective, and high-quality pharmaceutical products and all employees are collectively responsible for :-

- Ensure compliance with applicable current GMP guidelines and international regulatory standards across all manufacturing and quality operations for all types of pharmaceutical products.
- Maintain a robust Quality Management System (QMS) based on quality risk management throughout the product life cycle and continuous improvement.
- Establish strong data integrity, Good documentation practices, and traceability in line with international expectations.
- Promote continuous improvement through internal audits, CAPA, and regular quality management reviews.
- Ensure comprehensive training for all employees to maintain competence on GMP compliance and adherence to best practices.
- Protect the health of patients and customers by ensuring compliance with regulatory and statutory requirements.
- Strive for excellence in customer satisfaction, timely delivery, and regulatory compliance across all markets.

Approved by:

Managing Director

Date: 10.09.2025 Revision: 04